

Power . . . Magnetism . . .

Omar brings audiences to their feet!

At the age of 7, Omar fled Castro's Cuba with his family, having nothing but the clothes on their backs. Arriving in America, he began his journey toward his mission, dreams, and goals of achieving massive personal success. His outstanding performance took him from struggling salesman to multi-millionaire before the age of 31. Now, Omar has personally trained over 2 million people in more than two-thirds of the Fortune 500 companies worldwide, and has conducted over 5,000 seminars.
